Information

City of Lucerne

The beautiful city of Lucerne – also called "Leuchtenstadt" – is the heart of Switzerland. With picturesque churches, large squares and located directly at lake Lucerne, this city belongs to the most beautiful of Switzerland and attracts many tourists every year.

Lucerne is located at 422 m.a.s.l. and covers an area of 37,4 km². During the Detective Trail you will explore some of this area and learn a lot about this city and its medieval charm. Get ready for your trip and be prepared to fall in love with beautiful Lucerne.

Lucerne railway station

Lucerne's first railroad station was built in 1856 as a wooden structure by the Swiss Central Railway Company and quickly developed into a transportation hub thanks to its central location. Lucerne station was completely rebuilt in 1896.

On February 5, 1971, Lucerne station was almost completely burnt down. The team of architects Hans Peter and Peter Baumann then planned a new building. On this basis, the architect Santiago Calatrava designed the current station, which was completed in 1990.

Directions

Now return to the main entrance of the railway station. From here, cross the street and go to the big archway.

Question 3

| B) 1934 | points = 12 |
| C) 1938 | points = 18 |

Information

Archway Lucerne

The archway is probably Lucerne's greatest landmark. A remnant of the old railroad station, the imposing structure survived the fire in 1971 and now stands triumphantly in the center of the station square.

At the very top of the archway sits the "Zeitgeist" group of figures by Swiss sculptor Richard Kissling. The statue embodies the success of the successful construction of the Gotthard. The young man with his right arm outstretched points south towards the Gotthard tunnel. The group of figures pays tribute to Switzerland's longest construction project.

KKL (Lucerne Culture and Congress Centre)

Adjacent to the railway station is Lucerne's next landmark: the Lucerne Culture and Congress Centre, also called KKL.

The KKL was designed by the French architect Jean Nouvel and opened in 1998. The Lucerne Culture and Congress Centre holds rooms for exhibitions, concerts, performances and the Lucerne Museum of Art. Due to its enormous roof and the impressive architecture, the KKL is a true eye-catcher.

Information

Kapellbrücke (Chapel Bridge)

Together with the water tower, the Chapel Bridge is one of the city's biggest sights and a landmark in Lucerne. The bridge went down in the city's history when it burned down almost completely on the night of August 18, 1993. Only the two bridgeheads and the water tower could be saved. However, the missing part was reconstructed within eight months and the new Chapel Bridge was opened in 1994. The Chapel Bridge is also famous for its picture cycle with 147 panels; however, around two thirds were completely destroyed or severely damaged by the fire.

Fritschibrunnen

The Fritschibrunnen is a famous carnival fountain at Kapellplatz Lucerne. Various carnival masks cover the fountain's pillar, including the ones from Fritschi and his wife. On the top stands a banneret. Four "Narrenmasken" (masks of jesters) spout water from goats' horns into the fountain.

The Fritschibrunnen stands for the beginning of Lucerne's Fasnacht (carnival). On "schmutziger Donnerstag" (Thursday before Ash Wednesday) at 5 am carnival starts here with the "Urknall" (big bang) and the traditional "Fötzeliregen" (confetti shower).
